Venues and Spaces

Function Room

The function room is versatile for a range of styling and configurations for up to 120 guests. Suiting seminars, forums, launches, workshops, training, performances, networking events, soirees and even yoga! The parquet dancefloor is a feature.

The abundant windows deliver city views and natural light. The timber crafted stage is equipped with an audio system and digital screen for presentations. A sliding feature wall which can be closed for separation from the catering area or open for a larger venue space.

A basic audio visual package is included with your booking, and additional services are available.

A food and drinks service area is included and a fully equipped kitchen is available for self-catering.

Board Room

The Board room is suited to team and client meetings and small group training in a range of room configurations for up to 22 participants.

The space features a presentation area with illuminated feature backdrop and digital screen to connect your laptop for presentations.

Meeting Rooms

Two meeting rooms are available for client and team meetings (seating up to six people each). A meeting room is also available as a photography or video studio with backdrop and lights.

Business Lounge

The spacious lounge enjoys city views including the GPO clocktower. Styled with white leather lounges, it is an informal space for relaxing and networking. The area has a digital screen and can be booked as a space for events on special occasions.

Coworking Space

Work from a central location, on site where you are holding your meetings and events. With unlimited fresh ground coffee, take a break on the balcony with city views, and enjoy the networking in the members lounge. Lockers and cloak room are provided.

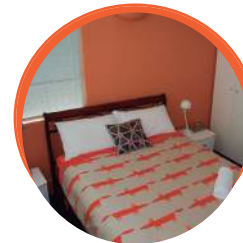

Attend Events

The program of events is co-curated by a network of collaborating speakers, facilitators, coaches and performers. Events include seminars, training, workshops, performances, forums, product launches, yoga, networking and celebrations. We host both one-off events and programs which run longer term.
